DETAILED ACTION

CLAIMS PRESENTED

In the outstanding response from applicant regarding restriction, applicant stated that claims 1-6, 9, 11-19, 75-79 and 107-108 should be examined together.

Thus, the other claims are (for now) withdrawn from consideration.

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

The arguments in the amendment of 10/9/2003 state that the cited references (Pointcast and Sullivan) do not teach the claimed invention.

At page 28, the amendment argues regarding Sullivan. The arguments can be summarized as stating that the "selling of keywords" of Sullivan do not correspond to the "correlating the search argument to particular advertisement." The Office disagrees. Sullivan was referring to the state of search engines. Search engines (then and now) were particularly used for such handling of advertisements. See, for instance, www.google.com 's <https://adwords.google.com/select/advantages.html> (attached to this Office Action). This website is not given as prior art; rather, the website is given to illustrate a typical use of search engine (then and now). This gives a typical use of search engines (then and now): keywords of search arguments are used to correlate to the advertisement. Thus, cited passages of Sullivan (as Sullivan directly mentions search engines in such fashion) would teach such "correlating the search argument to particular advertisement" of the claimed invention.

From page 28 and on, the amendment argues regarding Pointcast. The arguments can be summarized as stating that the "search arguments" are not shown in Pointcast. Even assuming (for the sake of argument) that this is true, this does not overcome the fact that Sullivan (the other reference) does teach "search arguments."

Thus, the claimed invention was taught by the cited references (Pointcast and Sullivan).

CLAIM REJECTIONS

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

The text of the rejections (of Office Action dated 6/11/2003) are referred in this present action. The text of those rejections can, of course, be found in that Office Action dated 6/11/2003.

Claims 1-6, 9, 11-19, 75-79 and 107-108 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pointcast and Sullivan (as noted in the Office Action dated 6/11/2003).

Conclusion

The art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The art disclosed general background.
